Rick's Ramblings

Resurrection

Resurrection is one of the main tenets of our faith. The oldest Christian creed or set of beliefs is the Apostles Creed. It states in the second to the last line, "I believe in the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting." There have been many thoughts and understandings of resurrection since the time of the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament). In the time leading up to the birth of Jesus there were Jewish movements that furthered that understanding and belief. But it was Jesus who brought it square into the forefront as God's promise that will be realized by all people. This promise was acted out by Jesus' own resurrection to demonstrate the defeat of death. Death is not an end to life but a continuation of life in spirit.

Paul's writes in 1 Corinthians 15: 51-55, "Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed – in a flash, in a twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: 'Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?'" I believe it is through realizing this promise that our faith is emboldened in hope. Even during our times of grief and mourning, in our times of deepest despair, in our times of daily struggles darkness does not overtake us because of the new life we have in our belief in Christ. We are strengthened by this hope in the promise realized, we are encouraged in our faith, we are able to express this hope in how we live our lives through our actions to serve, to offer compassion, to forgive, and to love as God has loved us through Jesus the Christ.

John wrote in Revelation 21: 1-5: "Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying 'Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.' He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. He who was seated on the throne said, 'I am making everything new!'" Through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, God made all things new, renewed life, renewed hope.

In the Merriam-Webster's online Dictionary one of the definitions for resurrection is resurgence, revival. As we celebrate Easter, I want to invite you to look forward to the weeks and months following that we pray on how we as a church family and as individuals can be resurrected, to have a resurgence and revival in faith. How we can be emboldened by the Resurrection to grow stronger God's church here in Temecula and beyond. You will see opportunities to be in ministries and projects that offer resurrection to our community and to the church family, to discover and to pray. You can participate and even take leadership. Take the time to fill out the Ministry Project Survey and return it so we know where our strengths and passion for ministry lay and can act upon it. I pray we all are moved and feel the power of the Resurrection for your life and that of Christ's Church at TUMC. HE LIVES!

Earth Day Walk: Walking for God Caring for Creation

On April 22, United Methodists from all over the South District will gather at Point Loma United Methodist Church (in San Diego) to walk to raise funds. These will support missions at our local churches and to help beautify the neighborhood around the church in Point Loma and Ocean Beach. This is on Earth Day, so it will be an opportunity to reflect the beauty of God's creation and how we can continue to care for it.

Our Youth will be walking and helping as well as handing out the reusable bags with our Church name on it. Walk with them and support them. There are sponsor sheets in the breezeway or the church office. If you have questions, contact Pastor Rick.

Final Day to Register for Cal-Pac South District Lay Servant Ministry Courses is April 8th

A Lay Servant is one who is eager to serve through the church by being committed to witnessing through church and community leadership, caregiving ministries, spoken communication, and is willing to improve their skills for service. Lay Servant Ministries offers training opportunities for laity who want to use their witness, leadership, and service to inspire others to a deeper commitment to Christ and more effective discipleship. Please pick up a brochure from the breezeway table.

The Language of Love Couples Retreat

Where by creation, God made two lives from one, now by marriage, He makes one life from two!

Life is hectic; getting to this appointment or that one, driving the kids to this event or that, one more date to put on the calendar. It seems time is too fleeting to sit down with your spouse or significant other. Most couples do not take the time to strengthen their marriage and run on auto-pilot too much.

Join the 12 couples that have already signed up for the one day couples retreat for all couples of the church and community. It does not matter if you have been married for a year or less or fifty years plus, this retreat will offer time to grow closer as a couple. Also it is a time to build relationships with other couples with the same goal as you, to grow stronger the relationship.

The retreat will take place at Camp Cedar Glen, a retreat camp nestled in the mountains outside of Julian. The date will be May 6th. We will gather at church no later than 7:30 a.m. for the drive to Julian. Upon arrival we will have a simple continental breakfast. We will be led in the morning session by Rev. Cindy Arnston, Pastor of the Community United Methodist Church in Julian. She has led other couples and relationship workshops and classes. She will be using material from The Languages of Love.

In the afternoon Dan Henley will share with the group "How to Share Hearts and Build a Better Bond through God's Plan for Your Marriage." We will close the day with worship and dinner. Cost is $60 per couple which includes three meals. There is a sign up sheet in the church breezeway. Contact Dan and Lorna Henley for more information.

Temecula Tuesdays

At the last Church Council, Pastor Rick presented the idea of offering community fellowship nights during the summer. This was a project brought up at the Mission, Ministry Project Vision day. Tuesday each week was selected to reach out to families and individuals in our community to come join us for a fun enriching night. There are already four of the Tuesdays planned including the Fourth of July Party. We will be having the Christian Illusionist for one week, the Youth will also be planning two Movie Nights on the Lawn with all invited to bring picnic dinners. There are a couple of other ideas in the works. If you would like to help in making one of these Tuesdays happen contact Pastor Rick. The objective is to reach families in our community and invited them to participate in these fun and inspiring programs.

School Superintendent Position Opening

Also we thank Diana for her love and care for our children.

We are now looking for a person or persons volunteering as a team interested in taking over this vital role in the life of our church family. If you feel you would like to explore this opportunity, please contact Pastor Rick as soon as possible.
