Rick's RamblingsLive In Peace

I'm sure that, like me, you have been troubled by the killings in France in mid-January. It is just another act of violence and hatred like the ones we have witnessed over oh so many years and even decades. We also see the violence in our neighborhoods, in our schools and homes. These acts of terrorism bring fear into our lives that lead to judgment, prejudice, hatred, and more violence. We ask when will this end, how should we live our lives now? Will we continue to live in fear and act in fear?

In the Gospel of John 14:27 Jesus prepares his disciples for the end of his earthly life, "Peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." What is this peace that Jesus gives to us? If we look at the Biblical definition of peace we find that it is Shalom, a people that is holistic, complete. It is a peace that is living in right relationship with another person or group of people. This peace means to live in a way of forgiveness of others, as of being forgiven. God has created a covenant with humanity out of this understanding of peace and sent his Son as a sign and living evidence of this covenant based on peace.

Jesus shared these words knowing that he was going to meet a violent end to his life but he didn't preach revenge, hatred or violence. He preached, taught, and lived peace that would heal and offer strength. So the way to live is to live not in fear but to live in confidence that the God who loves us offers us a peace that will give us the courage and strength we need to live in forgiveness, act in love, and know Christ is with us always.

As we come into February, recognized as Black History Month, we are reminded of the peace that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. preached and lived, the peace that Mahatma Gandhi lived, and that of so many others who stood up to the fear of violence and helped bring about a whole just society. They strove to emulate these words of Jesus from Luke 6: "But love your enemies, do good to them, and tend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." Yes, those who stand up with the peace of Christ in them will meet with resistance. But they will also strive to reconcile with those who are different from them, strive to reunite, and to become whole in the relationship. This is true whether we are talking about individual relationships or among peoples.

In striving to live the peace of Christ I also believe we will find peace within ourselves that can bring healing within, a calm to fears within our lives, and a hope that the violence we witness and face will come to an end. Friends, we will not see an end of violence of all kinds in all places as soon as we want, but if we live the Peace of Christ we can help bring an end sooner than later and let all know this is the way to bring peace.

Shalom
Pastor Rick

P.S.

I would like to thank Larry Messersmith, Ken and Debi Johnson, Lloyd Bradshaw and Karen Benvenuto for their years of serving the Church. All are transitioning from their current positions of service. They have done much for our congregation and I look forward to where God is calling them next to serve.

Love Can Build A Bridge

The ultimate weakness of violence is that it is a descending spiral, begetting the very thing it seeks to destroy. Instead of diminishing evil, it multiplies it...through violence, you may murder the hater, but you do not murder hate. In fact, violence merely increases hate... returning violence for violence multiplies violence, adding deeper darkness to a night already devoid of stars. Darkness cannot drive out hate, only love can do that.

SEASON OF LENT

Lent is the Christian season of preparation before Easter. In Western Christianity, Ash Wednesday marks the first day, or the start of the season of Lent, which begins 40 days prior to Easter (Sundays are not included in the count since Sundays are mini Easters). Lent is a time when many Christians prepare for Easter by observing a period of moderation and spiritual discipline such as fasting, personal devotion, Bible reading/study, repentance and service. The purpose is to set aside time for reflection on Jesus Christ - his suffering and sacrifice, life, death, burial and resurrection.

Lent is a usually a time when Christians think of giving up something, but it can also be a time of taking on something like starting a devotional or Bible reading time, serving the Church or a community organization in new ways or attending special worship services. There are many ways to put our focus on Christ.

This year Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, February 18. We will observe this time with a service of Ashes and Communion at 7 PM. Also, as a way for the TUMC Family to observe Lent and help practice spiritual discipline, there will be a Contemplative Prayer Worship (Date TBA) and ongoing Bible Studies. Please read page four for details.

This year there will also be a Maundy Thursday Service at 7 p.m. and a Good Friday Service led by our Youth Group. More details will follow in coming weeks.

TWELVE KEYS VISION/MISSION STUDY

In preparation for our Visioning Retreat and discovering where and whom God is calling us to serve, Pastor Rick and the Church Council are inviting all church family members to read the book Twelve Keys to an Effective Church: Strong, Healthy Congregations Living in the Grace of God.

This book will help us discover where we as a congregation find our strengths for ministry and living and will help us set our priorities for goals in mission and ministry. In all, we will grow in the Grace of God.

The books will be available in February/March and you can begin reading. Following Easter in April, you will be invited to take part in one of the groups that will study and score the 12 keys as part of the process of Vision/Mission Growing. We will have a kick off on Sunday, April 12, and then a Vision/Mission Retreat on Saturday May 9. More details will be shared in the upcoming weeks. If you have any questions you can contact Pastor Rick or Toby Hammett.

Let this be a time for us as TUMC and God's family to grow in our faith and service to God.

17th Annual Craft Faire

A Success for Missions Giving

Held Saturday, October 25, 2014, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. What began in 1997, with a small group of TUMC women has grown into an annual event. It is eagerly anticipated and recognized as one of the best events of its kind in the Temecula Valley. The goal of the Craft Faire is to provide funds for TUMC programs and to help meet the mission outreach needs of our Temecula Valley. Vendors return year after year with high praise for our organization and quality.

The 2014 Faire featured 74 vendors showcasing such articles as holiday crafts, jewelry, dolls and doll clothes, wood crafts, ceramics, crocheted and knitted items, handbags, jams and spices, children's items, fairy gardens and plant arrangements, greeting cards, paper crafts and photography. All items were hand-crafted. No commercial items were allowed. A live alpaca to pet and feed added to the attractions.

Breakfast and lunch were served by the Tuesday Ladies Bible Study group. Funds earned remain with them for their distribution. The United Methodist Women conducted a Bake Sale and Pauline Fields and Dorothe Hansen organized and conducted the Used Book and CD/DVD Sale. Bake and Book Sale funds remain with the UMW.

Craft Faire Committee funds are raised through vendor space fees which vary in price space depending on the vendor's location: Sanctuary space - $45; Grass area - $40; Patio and Room 1 spaces - $35.
