Rick's Ramblings

It is Monday morning. Three days ago Hurricane Harvey struck landfall and began devastating Rockport, Houston and the eastern coast of Texas. It stretched inland as far as San Antonio and more. Thousands of people are evacuated, sheltered in place in their homes, or trapped elsewhere. Power is out for thousands of people. The numbers of dead or injured are just starting to be reported. And many are told that the worst may not be over. The flooding of Houston and many other places continues to rise.

We read about this or watch it on our TV's or computers. Our hearts go out to those who are losing their homes, their way of life, and for some the lives of loved ones. We ask ourselves what can we do? How can we help? I believe first and foremost we begin and continue to pray. In Philippians 4:6, the Apostle Paul writes: "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God." God encourages us to pray so that we can begin a conversation with God, show our faith and trust in God and join with others in our faith communities, church families to add to hope and care for those in need, who are suffering and hurting.

When we are in prayer together, I believe, it leads to stirring those who are able to respond to the call to go and serve. I know that Art Salyer will be heading to Texas to serve as a part of the American Red Cross. I know there will be people from our local churches, our Cal-Pac Conference, who will be called and deployed to go and help clean up, and be present with the families who are grieving. I know through prayer many of us will be stirred to plan other actions such as organizing and putting together health kits. Is there a team of you who can help lead our church folks in putting together relief kits? (Contact: <http://www.umcor.org/UMCOR/Relief-Supplies/Relief-Supply-Kits/Cleaning>). These can be sent to disaster centers around the country and then to be distributed to those in need in Texas. Contact me if you can help. There will be other ways that will come about in which we can help from here in California. These will support the people and our United Methodist Churches. They are trying to care for people as they too are in the midst of recovery.

I know many people want to give money when a disaster happens. This is one of the best ways to help. Make sure you give to an organization or agency that you know, American Red Cross and Salvation Army are two. I would also strongly encourage you to give to United Methodist Committee On Relief. It is the Relief Agency of our United Methodist Church. 100% of the money given goes directly to the aid of relief and rebuilding. UMCOR will begin by giving a grant once requested by the Texas Conference. This is before any money is received from offerings. The United Methodist Church is known for being one of the last organizations to leave after a disaster. And I mean last. In Louisiana and Mississippi we were offering help for over 10 years. In the east we are still present in rebuilding communities after Hurricane Sandy. I know from personal experience in receiving support and help from UMCOR and being involved in Disaster Response and rebuilding for over 12 years at the District and Conference level that UMCOR is a name recognized and respected by FEMA, Red Cross and other relief organizations. You can give in two ways. One is by going to www.umcor.org, hit donate button then hit U.S. disaster response. Or you can give through the Church being sure to make a check out to TUMC marked in memo or on envelope for Hurricane Harvey relief.

I do want to share a couple of don'ts. First, resist any effort to get in your car and drive down to Texas. It will only add to the confusion and frustration. This is why we wait for an invitation from the Texas Conference. Also, don't send clothes. There will be enough clothes that will come in to clothe each person three or four times. Trailers of clothes will eventually be shipped out or thrown out after the need is fulfilled. Send only items that are requested.

In whatever response we offer, let us first and foremost Pray!

Peace & Grace
Pastor Rick

APRIL TAYRIEN - TUMC VOLUNTEER FOR NEW JERSEY SANDY RECOVERY MISSION TEAM

Dear Rick,

I am writing today to let you know how thrilled I am that one of your church members, April Tayrien, is a part of the 20-member district mission team that is heading to Forked River, New Jersey, this year, from September 23rd to 30th. We will be working on homes that were damaged when Superstorm Sandy hit the New Jersey shore almost 5 years ago. I am almost certain that I will be leading a team to Texas or Florida in a couple of years to help those there that will still be awaiting help from able-bodied and skilled souls.

Each member of the team has given us a $200 deposit but each of their whole expenses for the trip will be around $800. Luckily, we have raised enough funds (including a golden basket donation from your church), we only need to raise around $2,500 more to cover our travel to and living expenses in New Jersey plus their requested $100 per person supply donation.

You may offer a gift by making a check out to TUMC or putting cash in an envelope and place in the offering plate on Sunday or mail or drop by the church, if you were not able to contribute before. Make sure you note clearly South District Mission Team on your donation.

(This insert is included or attached with this Messenger.) The prayers for the team are the most important need. As you can see on the insert, the team is in the process of healing from grief as they head out to help others who have been in need for almost 5 years.

Thank you in advance for your support! We have appreciated Temecula UMC's support in the past.

Blessings and love,
 Jennifer
 Team leader and spouse of Rev. John Demaree
