In Search of New Resurrections

We in the church are in danger of becoming a tearless people, unable to rage even in a starless abyss.
 We have imitated a smiling society, glossing over the hurt, the oppression, the ceaselessness on earth, or we have become caustic and cynical and despairing, insisting on looking the other way as our church members crawl to the altar, the scraps of their lives in their arms.

We were created for covenant keeping and yet, we are in danger of becoming a blindhearted people, buying into the system, placing our hope with kings and corporations.
 Have we not seen?
 Have we not heard?

We persist in clinging to the way things are, or eagerly placing our faith in the newest religious fad, the latest book on how-to-Christianity (in ten easy steps), or the current slogans presented as though they were the Word of God.

We are programming and papering ourselves into perpetuity, and rationalizing and excusing our immorality.

We spend our energy in complaining, gloomily forecasting our future together.
 We panic for positions in employment and committee, with each special interest group vying for first place in the kingdom.
 Perhaps it's time for remembering that Jesus stood in the Jordan to be baptized with the others, long ago casting his lot, not with the good church people, but with the poor wherever that poverty might emerge.
 His name is Emmanuel, and yet, individually and corporately, we have named him "GOD-WITH-ME."

Have we not seen?
 Have we not heard?
 In the light of the cross, the alternative is anything but hopelessness.
 On the contrary!
 There is every scriptural indication that we are called to change who we are into the kingdom of God.
 Where change is possible, new resurrections loom!
