It feels like Lent to me!

Officially Lent started Sunday March 1st but it feels like it started in the latter half of 2008! Lent is that spiritually rich time the early church set aside for deepening one's faith experience. So traditionally, Lent starts 40 days before Easter (April 12th in 2009) not counting the Sundays since each Sunday is a mini Easter anyway. Many Christians today commit themselves to some new spiritual discipline to help remember the life and passion Jesus experienced. As your pastor, I encourage each of you to either start something or stop something that will help your faith and life in Lent.

Like most of you, I celebrate Christmas with more enthusiasm than Lent. After all, who likes sacrifice, discipline and honest reflection on one's life! Yet, we are missing something if we think that life is always supposed to be that "bowl full of cherries" (strange phrase). It's easy to think that all we should know is comfort and pleasure and "hanging out."

For almost a generation now the cultural message has been "live life to the fullest," and "experience all you can be." In contrast, the Christian message is, "Follow me!" be Christ-Like, "Love God with all your heart, mind and soul."

Perhaps we need Lent more than we know to clean out the cob webs of our lives and once again take up some crosses and find God's love, in the midst of trouble instead of falsely believing that real living only happens when things are going well.

What we need is spiritual power and light! What will get us where God wants us is strength for the journey. Life becomes greatness when we follow Jesus and let compassion, understanding, and love thrive. It's God's good news that we can live every day!

See you in worship ( I hope!)—Pastor Randy

Sunday

9:00 a.m. Adult Bible Study in Room 6

On Sunday March 1st, the Sunday morning Adult Study Group started a new study series entitled: Understanding Evil. This study is based on the book "Evil & the Justice of God" by N.T. Wright. In his book, Wright argues that one of the first things that is needed is to stop denying the existence of evil, and to accept that evil pervades the world we live in. Wright maintains that we need to recognize that evil takes many forms, and that evil has been a problem that people have had to deal with since the beginning of time. All are welcome. For additional information contact Joe Hughes at j\_hughes@netzero.com.

TUMC member Gail Skennion. The discussion book of the month was "The Friday Night Knitting Club" by author Kate Jacobs a delightful novel about a Single mom and several very different women who meet through a knitting shop in NYC. When Gail went online to find information on the author for discussion, she learned that author, Kate Jacobs, encourages book clubs to contact her about discussions or questions they may have about her or her stories. She also offered to become part of the discussion! Through a request by email, it was arranged for Kate to call Gail's home at a pre-determined time during the meeting. At 7:45 p.m. it was announced to the group that the author herself would be calling in to join the discussion. The group quickly got their questions lined up for the call! At 8:00 Kate Jacobs called and was put on speaker phone so the group could all hear her speak. She told the group about her background, her college writing experiences and why she wrote "The Friday Night Knitting Club". The group then asked her several questions of their own about the characters and a lengthy and lively discussion ensued! The group was so intrigued by her stories and background they decided they'd certainly need to go on and read her other books "Knit Two" and "Comfort Food". The discussion lasted about 20-25 minutes. The group was very excited as it was very engaging to have the author phone in and make her own special personal appearance. As the phone discussion came to a close, Kate graciously offered to mail signed book plates for each member of the book club to affix to their copy of her books.

The TUMC book club is now in its 4th year; we are so grateful for the opportunity to meet in fellowship the first Tuesday of every month. Joining TUMC's book club has been a great way to unwind and make new friends. Reading and discussion is a splendid form of relaxation and produces great camaraderie among the group. Please consider joining, we'd love to have you.

The Meaning of Lent

Submitted by Gloria Galvez

Lent is a Christian observance which must be understood to be of any value. The word "LENT" comes from a variety of Anglo-Saxon & Germanic words which mean spring, a time budding with new life and hope.

For Christians, Lent is not a nature celebration, but a personal discipline. It recognizes that most of us don't come naturally to spiritual exercises and growth, even less are we likely to be probing when looking at ourselves.

So, the 40 days of Lent (Sundays are not included, for they are the Lord's Day, which includes a celebration of the resurrection) are times of discipline and personal inventory.

We try to look to Christ for the standards by which we live our lives, with goals of self-giving and suffering love. With such high goals, any programmatic response seems to fall short. We have designed our Sunday Lent services to try to help us all in both discipline and introspection, and we invite you to join us in scripture reading and prayer.

Lent means a discipline in spiritual life and a time for personal inventory. There are many methods of achieving this, but none will help you until you decide to work towards it.

TUMC IN SPAIN!

By Stephanie Wilson

TUMC member attending UC/Davis Study Abroad Program in Spain.

I have decided on this schedule, and am quite happy about it:

- *History of Contemporary Spain
- *Politics and Society of Modern Spain
- *Spanish Art
- *Spanish Literature
- *Advanced Language

History, Spanish Lit, and Language all count back home - art and politics are for fun! I really like all of my professors, and think it's going to be a great semester. And in case you were wondering: I can actually understand all of my professors. They all speak slowly and make sure we know what is going on, without babying us. It's a different story with people our age on campus - I try to eavesdrop a little when walking around, but they talk too fast and mumble... just like WE do at home. Everyone is very helpful though. Today I was panicking because I had to buy a reader for my politics class, and when I finally asked a couple people how and where and all that, they were incredibly nice. I got my reader.

The language barrier is actually getting much better. I think I must have crossed over the first threshold, because I understand a lot more (at school and at home) and don't have AS MUCH trouble speaking.

Yesterday a friend and I met up at the Monclova station in Madrid to hang out. It was so much fun. We walked the streets of Madrid for over four hours, exploring and discovering things about the city that even she didn't know. We had lunch at one of those donor kebab places. Turkish sandwich and Coke Light, and then began our walkabout. We somehow ended up at the Plaza de Espana, which was really cool! Then we walked around and found ourselves at the Royal Palace, which so far I had only seen at night. What a view! Both the architecture and the countryside beyond are fabulous to look at. Around six or so, we ended up at Sol and split up on the metro. I hope we can make this a tradition! We talked about maybe meeting up every week at a different metro stop, to continue getting to know different parts of the city.

Stephen Ministry Leader Training Portland, Oregon

Joyce Little, Stephen Leader

Stephen Ministry is: Christ Caring for People through People

My heartfelt thanks to our congregation, United Methodist Women and the MONKS for providing the funds allowing me to attend this invaluable training seminar.

192 people attended, from 26 different states, Canada and Japan, from 56 churches and 14 different Christian denominations.

In 60 plus hours of training, worship and prayer, we learned the tools and techniques that we need to train others as Stephen Ministers.

What do Stephen Ministers Do? "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

GAL 6:2. We are life giving, life affirming, loving, caring people, trusting that God will show us the way to help others. WE SHOW UP and stay until no longer needed. AND, we do this with absolute strict confidence!

Stephens Ministers have 50 hours of training in:

- Crisis care
- Supportive Care
- Preventive Care
- Long-term care or one time care
- Follow-up care

Natural and manmade disasters

Supporting our military and their families

Supporting family members caring for Alzheimer's and home bound loved ones

Stress related from job loss, retirement, promotion, relocation or job change

Grief counseling

Veterans hospitalized or in rehabilitation

Care of families in crisis from divorce, income loss or new baby blues.

Each of us needs to be aware of what we hear. As we light our prayer candles each Sunday, or maybe someone might say to you, "I have been struggling with a,b,or c." You might consider asking that person if they would like to speak to a Stephen Minister. With their permission, you can give them the phone number for Pastor Randy or any Stephen Minister, and we will follow up, assuring them of our and your confidentiality.

Almost without fail, we will hear, "No, I'm OK. Or, I can handle this by myself; I don't want to impose; I'm embarrassed to ask for help; my pride won't let me ask; or I'm really angry at God right now." Our Lord understands all of these feelings and emotions and through Him we can help you find your way to a spiritually nurturing life.

We must remember that faith is more caught than taught! God will do what we cannot do. We cannot see God's invisible, life giving power. IS 41:9-10.

Stephen Ministers have leadership skills, they are committed, they are accountable, they focus on the purpose of each care receiver, they are egalitarian in nature and they are trained in a diversity of backgrounds, experiences, problems and opportunities.

March 29th

We will be celebrating Stephen Ministry Sunday. Please be with us for worship on this special day. Remember, God provides enough people with enough variety of gifts!
