RICK'S RAMBLINGS*EASTER FLOWER

One of my favorite Easter devotional writers is J. Barrie Shepherd, a Presbyterian pastor and author of countless poems and devotional writings. In his book Faces at the Cross he writes an interesting short piece entitled "Hope Weed".

Our Christian symbols seem, at times, not quite appropriate to the meaning that they bear. For instance, take the Easter lily, white and fragile sign of resurrection. Rare, its graceful silent trumpet greets the light of March or April only under glare of florists' lamps, unnaturally bright. You never find them in the open air before July.

A better flower for Easter Day would be, as every angry gardener knows, the dandelion, seeded by the gay abandoned wind that, as it listeth, blows. No matter how we weed out every stray, digging as deep, the root still deeper goes. And when, at last, we quit and go away, the rain falls, and a host of fresh bright foes stands resurrected, and the garden glows.

Yes, the resurrection is glorious but it really happened in a messy time with oppression, brutality, and more. Do we dress up Easter so much that we forget that the time and events weren't pretty? The followers of Christ struggled and were afraid for their lives and not sure what to do next. What the dandelion reminds us of is its tenaciousness; it is renewed life even after death.

Our faith is not always pretty. But with the risen Christ we will receive the spirit of endurance and strength to face the struggles of life and to persevere in living in the hope and calling of Christ. Our faith isn't about how it looks, but what the results are and how effective we are in living in the way of Christ. It is about the life it gives which brings a joy to our faith.

Friends, the dandelion is stubborn and overcomes adversity. It is more than just a one-day show of beauty. It is an enduring life. This is what our life in faith in the Risen Christ gives to us.

Happy Enduring Easter

Grace, Peace & Hope
Pastor Rick

Prayers and Squares

Do you like to sew? Do you like fellowship? Would you like to combine the two and offer prayer quilts for those in need of prayer?

This is a new group that is forming at Temecula UMC. Prayers and Squares is a part of a larger interfaith, non-profit prayer ministry that combines the gift of prayer with the gift of a hand-tied quilt. Prayers and Squares motto "It's not about the quilt, it's all about the prayers." The purpose is to promote an active prayer life among the participants, not just to make and give away quilts.

Marlene Oaks, a new member of TUMC, is heading up the organization of this new group. She is inviting any and all to come and be a part of this group. It doesn't matter if you sew, but that you want to learn. It's about the people. Come and find out more and give it a try. The first gathering is Friday April 8, 10 a.m.. Look for the sign up in the Breezeway. For more information contact Marlene, 951-551-9489 or sewingatlightspeed@yahoo.com.

Church Budget Set for 2016

At their January meeting, the Church Council approved the operating budget 2016 recommended by the Finance Team. The budget approved is $328,544 which is a 2.7% increase over 2015. This is in part due to a building maintenance increase and the running of the office and finances. Beside this, we have grown the amount for the ministries of the church. All this allows us as a church family to offer ministries that serve our congregation and community to live out our vision of Christ to the world. To meet this budget, we as a congregation of faith will remain faithful in our giving and participate where possible in the other fundraising events.

Through our budget last year, we touched lives and served our congregation and community and met our obligations except for meeting our full United Methodist Denominational giving to our Conference. Our hope is to meet all our giving needs for 2016 and, with everyone's generous giving of gifts and time, we will continue to offer the grace and hope of Christ in real, helpful ways. If you have questions or ways you can help contact Bret Argenbright, Chair of Finance Committee or Pastor Rick.

Electronic Giving

Thanks to the due diligence of Bret Argenbright, the Finance Team, and John Waddleton as our Web Master, we now have the opportunity to offer electronic giving. You can go to our website www.temeculaumc.com and go to the donate button and follow the prompts to fill out the form. At this time, we only have giving for the general budget. If you want to give to the Golden Basket Offering or other offerings or purchases you will need to do this on Sunday during worship or in the Church Office. We hope this giving option helps in your faithful giving to the church. If you have questions, contact Bret Argenbright or Pastor Rick

New Spiritual Growth Group to Start

MONKS

Men of Nurturing Knightly Spirit

SAVE THE DATE! MONKS Men's Retreat April 23-24, 2016 at Camp Cedar Glen. It will be an overnight retreat.

In your many roles as a Christian Man: Husband, Father, Son, Grandfather, Grandson, Friend, Confidant, Guardian, Role Model, Coach and Uber Driver: how do YOU find inner peace in a world of conflict, adversity and uncertainty?

Jesus bestowed an important gift to his disciples on his last night with them before his trials:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not let them be afraid."

Rather than trying harder to please everyone, or struggling to clear your muddled mind, the Apostle Paul provided spiritually sound but practical advice to find lasting inner peace in Philippians, commonly known as the Epistle of Joy.

Please join us at the MONKS Retreat on Saturday, April 23th and Sunday, April 24th at Camp Cedar Glen in Julian. Get away for one day, one night and one morning of fellowship, fun and faith together. You owe it to yourself and you owe it to your family. We would like to see you there for a memorable experience.

Early bird registration before April 1st is only $60. Full price is $95.50 for the cost of the facility and there are a limited number of scholarships available. Please contact Dan Henley for more information. There is a signup sheet in the church breezeway.

SATURDAY

MARCH 19th

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul in collaboration with Temecula United Methodist Church will hold it's "Friends of the Poor Walk" Saturday, March 19th at St. Jeanne de Lestonnac School, Temecula.

Proceeds will directly benefit the SVDP food pantry. The pantry serves over 100 local families in need each week. Although we receive generous food donations from area markets and parishioners from TUMC and St. Catherine's, it is never sufficient to take care of the need. The ministry must purchase meat and other basic food items weekly. We need funds to make these purchases. Please plan to participate.

Reserve the walk date: March 19th at 8 a.m.

Hi Everyone,

Just wanted to say a great big thank you for all that you did to make the Annual Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser a big success!

You all helped in so many ways, cooking, baking, shopping, promotion, ticket sales, donations, setup, preparation, cleanup and probably a few things I forgot. It takes a team to make it work and you all are a great team. We raised over $3000 for two great causes, St. Catherine's Food Pantry and Project Touch. So again, many thanks to all of you.

Barry Adams
