Rick's Ramblings

A Concern and Two Joys

Every Sunday I invite you, the church family to come forward to light a candle if you have a joy or concern. This is to share your joy or concern that your church family might pray with you and lift it to God. Well, let my "Rick's Ramblings" be my lighting of the candles as I share with you my concern and joys.

The first concern I have has been with me for several months, if not more. It is the apparent division that has grown more prevalent in our communities and our country. It seems there is more and more choosing of sides. "My side is right!" "No my side is right!" We stop communicating and trying to find out what is best for all people because we want to be right, we want to be in control, we want to show that we are right and you are wrong!

I have sensed and observed this growing division by race, religion, political parties, lifestyle, economics and more during our election season during the past year. Those in supposed power or control do what they want for what they will gain just because they can. It is not because it's best, helpful or caring for others. One of the key foundations I share with couples I am counseling for marriage is to keep communicating. Share with each other what is going on in and with you. This means joys, hopes, needs, hurts, and concerns. And be open to listening and hearing the other, and responding with care, concern and love.

Jesus teaches in his Sermon on the Plain in the Gospel of Luke 6:31, "Do to others as you would have them do to you." And again Jesus teaches "love your neighbor as yourself." When we live out these two teachings, then we are thinking of and concerned about the other. And when we are concerned and love others, then we will also receive what is best for us.

This doesn't mean we will always agree with one another. An exchange of differing ideas and open listening can bring about changes that support one another and bring growth and strength for all people. Again Jesus teaches, "Any kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall." It's not about agreeing all the time. But it is about cooperating and seeking to do what is best for the community and the country. I call on us all to hear the teachings of Paul the Apostle in Romans 16:17, "I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned." Let us live out loving of neighbor and let us call on our government leaders at all levels to live out this teaching as they are considering the policies and laws that effect the weakest and least in our communities.

Now my two joys. First, this last weekend a number of people came together to take a new look at our Ministry/Mission, Program Vision. This is about what ministries and programs we are focusing on and want to continue to expand, plus identify some new possibilities. Below are the six good possibilities that will come to you to vote for three in an upcoming survey.

- Use a communication person or task force to coordinate church communication both internally and externally using all forms of communication available to us.
- Offer a weeknight fellowship with different breakout groups for growth, fellowship and fun.
- Incorporate a children's choir, music program, hand bells for children – adults.
- Outreach to local military families and individuals to offer welcome, support and care.
- Create a small, intimate chapel space to have regular prayer, meditation and healing

- Create a mentoring program where adults can connect with children and youth to share spiritual gifts, special talents or knowledge they might have with children that share that same interest or want to learn more about it.

I'm excited for the passion and hope as we continue to serve God in our community and world.

The second joy I share is that in April, we shall make our last mortgage payment! Hallelujah! So many of you have been a part of this journey. We have built a building and space to be open and welcoming, a place to offer hope and healing, and a place to offer programs and ministry for help and faith. Sunday, May 21, 3:00 P.M., has been set to have the celebration of burning the mortgage. We could use your help. There are those who were a part of this journey still in the community and those now living elsewhere. If you have names and addresses of the latter, will you please get them to the church office? If you can, please help with planning, invitations, providing for the reception. The preliminary plan is to have a service with both previous pastors participating with a choir. The other United Methodist Churches in our Valley will be invited to join us as well as the community churches.

I will be putting out invitations to our District Superintendent as well. We also need pictures from over the last several years.

God had been good to our Church Family. Let us give thanks as we celebrate together.

I ask that you pray with me over my concern for our community and country and my joys with which God has blessed us. Amen.

Pastor Rick
