Rick's Ramblings

Give Thanks with a Grateful Heart

If you remember last month's article my Ramblings title seems familiar and you will know that I wrote about giving thanks in the midst of the tragedies as well as the celebrations of our lives. I wrote that God gives to us, provides for us, and heals us during the most difficult of circumstances we face each day of our lives.

As we come into November, a month in which we specifically think about giving thanks, I believe it is worth sharing more about giving thanks to God for the love, peace and hope we receive in many ways great and small. Let me start with a brief recap of last month's article, more specifically of one Biblical understanding of thanksgiving tied to Holy Communion.

Jesus shows us the way in the upper room where he "took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me'" (Luke 22:19). Was he saying he was giving thanks for the pain, suffering and death he was about to endure? No.

The Greek word for "thanks" in Luke 22:19 is eucharisteo. "The root word of eucharisteo is charis, meaning "grace." Jesus took the bread and saw it as grace and gave thanks. He took the bread and knew it to be a gift and gave thanks. Eucharisteo, thanksgiving, envelops the Greek word for grace, charis. But it also holds its derivative, the Greek word chara, meaning "joy." Charis. Grace. Eucharisteo. Thanksgiving. Chara. Joy.

I would like to share with you some of the ways I am thankful for what God has given me. First I say thank you to God every day for this church family that I am blessed to serve and the community which Sally and I live. From the first day I came to live and be among you all have embraced us, come along side and partnered with us as we walk the path of faith and follow the direction and vision God has called us to. I want to say thank you to all in the church family who shared uplifting and kind words and cards of appreciation during October, Pastor's Appreciation month. Your love and generosity has humbled both Sally and me.

I am thankful for my wife Sally. She is my love and my partner now for 38 years. We have been through highs and lows together, to love and to honor, in richer and poorer, in sickness and health.

I am thankful for our son Kenn. Those of us who are parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles know the joy children of all ages bring into our lives. Kenn has blessed us and surprised us over the years. He has grown into a wonderful young man and offers his love to us.

I am thankful for Howard and Dennis, two of my closest friends I have known since childhood. For their families that are a part of our family.

I am thankful to be able to be a part of the Interfaith Council of the Murrieta and Temecula Valley. It is a group that comes together to promote unity of all God's children. It speaks out for those who are excluded by the community because of their particular faith. We come together to promote peace.

I am thankful for all those in our church family who serve in our community and beyond. Our youth go to communities where people struggle in poor living conditions. They help with improvements to homes and lives as they grow in their faith in Jesus.

I am thankful for those who serve in the military who sacrifice to protect our nation at home and abroad and who are away from their families. I give thanks for the families of service members and pray for protection of all.

I give thanks for all first responders who risk their life to protect and serve. They do battle in the face of natural disasters to bring many to safety and put out fires. Others volunteer for the Red Cross, Salvation Army and the United Methodist Committee on Relief Early Response Teams who go to offer help and comfort for those affected by disasters.

Most especially, I am thankful to our God who is most generous, compassionate, and loving. God holds me strong in my times of weakness and despair. God lifts me up with joy in my times of fun and happiness. God never abandons me.

These are some of the many joys, gifts, and blessings I give thanks to God for every day. I believe as we take time to recount our blessings and give thanks, we know there is hope for ourselves, our families, communities, and the world. We grow in our faith in the one who offers us eternal life, Jesus the Christ.

I invite you to take time to give God thanks for your blessings, joys, and gifts in your time of prayer.

Peace & Grace
Pastor Rick

From UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief)

During their Oct. 12-14 meeting, directors of the denomination's Board of Global Ministries and UMCOR approved more than $7 million in grants for hurricane and other disaster-relief work and $1.86 million for global health projects.

UMCOR already had received some $15 million from donors in recent months to respond to U.S. disasters. Full-page ads in the Wall Street Journal and New York Times have highlighted the denomination's commitment to disaster relief and the fact that 100 percent of all donations go directly to relief efforts.

BIRDIES FOR BREAD PROCEEDS

The Eleventh Annual 2017 Birdies for Bread Golf Tournament and Banquet was even a greater success than last year. The total came to $14,556.00. A grand total of $83,129.14 has been given to the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry at St. Catherine's since 2007. Ron Moreland writes:

This year there were over 80 golfers and 125 people at the Banquet. The Opportunity Ticket Drawings and Live Auction produced more money than ever before. Mark McCullough was our auctioneer extraordinaire. His wife, Monica and daughter, Meghann, along with Carolyn Buehler, did a fantastic job in arranging and displaying the items for auction and opportunity selection. Scott Parker, MONKS' treasurer, my wife, Jenny, along with a stellar team of other MONKS, helped make this event possible. Larry Murphy, my partner in presenting this event for the past two years, was the key factor in the success that has been realized by the Tournament and Banquet for the past eleven years. The weather was great and the participants of this year's event gave it a thumbs up across the board. A special presentation of the proceeds check was
