Rick's Ramblings

Nick Canepa is a long-time sportswriter and columnist in San Diego. He has a column in the San Diego Union Tribune that comes out on Sundays. He picks a main topic about a sports team, issue, athlete or other sports related topic. This takes up the beginning portion of the column. Then he uses the remaining space for other topics or issues that are on his mind that he wants to speak to. Basically, it is a sports editorial column.

You may have noticed that there is no title for my article this month other than the usual heading. I am going to use the rest of the space this month sharing about not one, but more than one topic on my mind. So, I don't have one subject title but just a few ramblings. I'm going to take a page from Canepa's format, but no, I'm not going to do a sports ramblings. Nevertheless, with the end of the baseball regular season and the Padres' huge drop-off since the All-Star break, I would have much to write about that subject for another time.

Let me begin with these Scriptures:

So then, my dear friends, stand firm and steady. Keep busy always in your work for the Lord, since you know that nothing you do in the Lord's service is ever useless. (I Corinthians 15:58).

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (I John 4: 7-8).

Now this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed. II Corinthians 9:6-8.

There are five words of affirmation that are asked of all who look to become members of a United Methodist Church. I contend these words represent a life that reflects in part the calling God calls us to, written throughout the Bible. I have chosen just three of these Scriptures and shared them.

We live in a hectic and busy time in our society. We have jobs, health concerns, schedules with our children and grandchildren, and so much more and what's going on in the world that adds to our pressures. In all we are called to serve God. In doing so we keep our focus on God, on living out the message and life of Jesus by loving one another, loving our neighbors as ourselves, and loving strangers. By serving God we give testimony by our words and actions to this message and calling to love.

By serving God, keeping our focus on God, witnessing our love of Christ, we are called to give of ourselves freely and with hope. Yes, there is much demand on our time, lives, and resources, but what we learn from the passage from II Corinthians is that when we put our priority on God we can trust that whatever resources we have will be enough firstly for the work of God, sharing the love of Christ, and then for ourselves.

There are many ways as we live out our faith to respond to God's calling for us to serve, witness, and give. In the life of our church family there are three opportunities that can be a part of your faith living.

1. As we look for persons, youth through adult, to serve on various committees, task forces, and teams beginning in 2020, I will ask all to assess your strengths to serve and pray on how you can serve your church and God that will help us offer the ministries and programs that will share the love, hope, and inclusiveness of Jesus.
2. We look around and we ask where have all the people gone? How do we grow and get others to join us? One way is by planning and offering awesome worship, groups and more, where people find hope, fellowship and friends and grow in their faith. But that mostly happens when we share our story about how the love of Christ and the love of this congregation lifted us up, offered us hope and cared for us. We can do great social media and advertising, but it is the personal sharing and invitation that begins to grow the church. Then it is by being totally welcoming of all people and surrounding them with love that makes them want to stay and be a part of the family.

3. Giving of our resources, time, talents and generous gifts not only helps us care for the poor, homeless, hurting and outcast, but also supports our Church. The practical part is leadership and staff, facilities that allow people to find a safe place to worship and meet and a place for fellowship and learning in faith.

I started out sharing that I was going to ramble. But as you can read, when we offer our life of faith by way of our presence, prayers, gifts, service and witness they all come together in living the way God calls us and offers us the love of Christ.

Please pray on how you can live out this faith in the last months of this year and in the year ahead.

Peace & Grace,
Pastor Rick

We have had our Congregational Conversations and have heard from many voices. But we have not come together as one. This is how we will move forward as one church family to be a totally Inclusive church for ALL people. What does that mean? What that looks like? What will we do to make this a reality? What will a new Mission/Vision Statement look like that will direct us in our actions and planning as a people of Christ?

Come be with us on Sunday October 6, 3:00 PM. This gathering is open to ALL persons of the Temecula United Methodist Church family. Whether you participated in one of the conversations or not, this gathering is open to you!

What questions will be answered? What actions will be decided? That will be determined by those who come and help shape the dialogue. If you have questions contact Pastor Rick.

Sunday School and Nursery Help Needed

We would like to thank Jeanette Frisbey for serving as the Volunteer Christian Education Coordinator the last two years. She has coordinated Sunday Morning Sunday School for toddler – high school, VBS, and other children's programs. She has shared the joy and love of Jesus with our children and their parents. Jeanette wants to change her focus in serving in the church and is planning to step down at the end of the Year. Please share a Big Thank You! with Jeanette.

Now we are looking for volunteers to help pick up this service. We have Sunday School teachers but need someone or a team to coordinate our Sunday morning. Also, we can use other caring, loving persons who would have the fun of caring for our youngest who attend our Sunday School in the toddler room. We can use persons for 9:00 and 10:30 AM services. A background check will be needed and you must have attended TUMC for a year. If you can serve in this way you can contact Pastor Rick or Jeanette.

Underwrite the Remodel

The church kitchen, Hillside Room, and renovation of family bathroom are complete. They are updated, refreshed and beautiful. Many people have shared generous gifts to help underwrite the cost of the remodel and renovation. If you have been thinking about sharing a gift that will help support this project and our church budget you are invited to place your gift in an envelope and mark it Remodel. All sizes of gifts are welcomed and generous in their giving. If you have questions you can contact Pastor Rick or Lloyd Bradshaw.

Mystery Dinner Theater

Mystery Dinner Theater

Everyone likes a good who dunit! Everyone likes a good dinner! Everyone loves to get together with friends and family for a good time! Well you can combine all this in one great night and help raise money to support the mission and ministries of our Church budget that makes it even better. A number of years ago Temecula UMC Family came together to put on a Mystery Dinner show. It was a hit, all had a great time and there was good food and many laughs.

This idea has been raised by the Church Council as a possibility for 2020 as a way to help support our Church budget. To begin we are looking for any who had a great time being a part of the previous Mystery Dinner Theater, fancy oneself an amateur thespian, and would like to participate in some way to help your church out, contact Pastor Rick or Toby Hammett that we might have an initial gathering of interested persons to move forward on this fun filled event.
